Fick & Sons would like to thank all of our customers. We appreciate your business and try our best each year to provide you with the best propane price possible. These clubs protect you from market price increases that could occur during the coming year

- Cap members price will not exceed $2.189 per gallon
- When pre-buy gallons are used up, price adjusts to the current market rate. Unused gallons convert to credit dollars on your account June 1, 2013
- These price clubs for residential use only. --124 gal tanks do not qualify
- All clubs require minimum delivery of 200 gals. $50 delivery fee applies if less than 200 gals
- Club members must order their final delivery by May 15, 2013 as pricing expires June 1, 2013
- Fick & Sons enforces a strict credit policy. Customers with approved credit are expected to pay for each delivery within our company terms of net 10th of month following invoice
- Price Club members that have a past-due balance will forfeit their guaranteed price and membership fees
- Not responsible for circumstances effecting pricing such as acts of God, product allocations, or governmental rules or interventions beyond the control of the company
